For local history check out the Smithsonian Museum at Pas-ka-poo park and the Beatty Heritage House. More information can also be found in the Rimbey Tourist Guide—pick it up at downtown businesses and the Tourist Information Booth.

Guess what's happening on the August long weekend? Saturday, August 5th during the market, if you come with a donation for the food bank, you get an entry into a draw to win a sterling silver ammolite pendant (value $100)! Donations can be food products or monetary. One entry per person. All the vendors' table rent that day will be donated to the food bank as well! So remember to come with a donation, and you could be going home with a beautiful new ammolite pendant!

The Community Wellness Association is a group of citizens who meet once a month in the hope of addressing community social issues. Please call 403 843-4304 for more info.

The Rimbey Medical Clinic is pleased to announce the initiation of a screening program for at risk seniors. The goal is to identify older adults that may have characteristics of frailty. We can then implement supports, treatments, and/or investigations to improve health outcomes, independence, and resilience. Patients must have a physician at the Rimbey Medical Clinic, be 75 years or older and meet certain criteria.
